CALL FOR PAPERS

19th IWH-CIREQ-GW Macroeconometric Workshop:
Uncertainty, Expectations and Macroeconomic Modelling on December 12th and 13th, 2018 in Halle (Saale), Germany

The workshop provides a platform to discuss new developments in the field of empirical and applied macroeconomic modelling and aims at bringing together academic researchers and practitioners. We invite applied and theoretical papers dealing with time series, business cycles, economic uncertainty and expectations. Papers that explicitly cover the macroeconomic modelling on uncertainty and expectations are particularly welcome.

Each conference day is opened by an invited speaker followed by contributed papers, discussants, and posters.

Keynote lectures are given by:

Francisco Ruge-Murcia (McGill University)

Chiara Scotti (Federal Reserve Board)

Please note that the keynote addresses will be closed to media and off the record.

The workshop fee for participants is EUR 130 (reduced fee for PhD students EUR 95). The fee covers conference materials, coffee breaks, the lunch break (Thursday), and the conference dinner (Wednesday). Please note that all participants have to cover their accommodation and travel expenses themselves.

Information on previous IWH-CIREQ-GW Macroeconometric Workshops can be found here.

Please submit your paper or an extended abstract in PDF format along with information on paper title, name(s) of author(s) and contact details to: <https://en.xing-events.com/GQQLNVR>.

We assume that by submitting your paper and personal data, you agree that these information will be used exclusively for purposes of conference planning. The data and your paper will be passed to the scientific committee for the review process. After the conference, these data will be deleted.

The submission deadline is October 10th, 2018. Authors will be informed by October 25th, 2018. Registration will be possible from October 25th, 2018.
